

I have lived in NJ for 15 years. During that time, I saw our evening meals increasingly interrupted by STREAMS of unsolicited phone calls. Since the enactment of NJ's Do Not Call law we have seen a dramatic (almost unbelievable) reduction in calls. Please leave the law as it stands, my family enjoys the peace and quiet.